I. SUMMARY OF PROCEEDINGS & CHARGES

Following intelligence reports and extensive military investigations initiated in mid-2026, Major Maria Luiza Carvalho Souza was apprehended on July 17, 2026. Investigations conclusively proved that during military interventions in the Amazonian sector ordered by the defendant, systematic atrocities were committed under the guise of counter-insurgency and regional pacification.

The court-martial commenced formally on August 15, 2026. Over less than two weeks of intense judicial scrutiny, military prosecutors established irrefutable culpability across multiple capital charges during an active wartime state.

II. FORMAL INDICTMENT & FINDINGS OF GUILT

The Tribunal found the defendant guilty on all counts brought forth by the prosecution panel:

Charge	Substantiated Findings	Legal Basis
Crimes Against Humanity	Orchestrated systematic executions and forced displacement of indigenous and civilian populations in the Amazonian zone.	Wartime Penal Code Art. 211
Drug Trafficking	Utilized military authority and logistics to clear corridors and protect transnational narcotics shipments.	Federal Narcotics Act & Military Code
High Treason & Conspiracy	clandestinely provided strategic intelligence and military armaments to the armed forces of a neighboring hostile state.	Code of Military Justice Art. 356
Aggravated Murder	Ordered the elimination of witnesses, dissenting officers, and non-compliant civilian contractors.	Military Penal Code Art. 205

III. SENTENCING & JURISDICTIONAL TRANSFER

Given the wartime context and the severity of the offenses, the Military Council invoked wartime provisions authorizing capital punishment as an exemplary deterrent. Due to the absence of domestic lethal injection or gas chamber infrastructure capable of meeting rigorous protocol standards, the Tribunal ordered the transfer of Major Souza to the high-security correctional facility ASTEN.

V. UNITED STATES STANDARDIZED EXECUTION PROTOCOLS

The execution procedure within ASTEN's specialized facility shall strictly adhere to established high-security protocols:

- Attire: The condemned will wear light apparel, specifically a formal dress uniform jacket stripped of all insignia, ribbons, medals, and metallic decorations.
- Footwear Regulation: The defendant shall wear standard formal uniform shoes during initial processing, which shall be removed prior to chamber entry. The Major will enter and remain completely barefoot throughout the execution procedure to prevent any retention of lethal gas residues within footwear material.
