

IN THE CENTRAL TRIBUNAL OF PACIFICA

SPECIAL CRIMINAL DIVISION

THE PEOPLE OF PACIFICA,

Prosecution,

v.

AMY LEE ROSE,

Defendant.

Case No. ALR-26-0702-X

ORDER ON VERDICT AND INTERIM SENTENCING

Capital penalty phase reserved

I. JURY PROCEEDINGS AND FINDINGS

1.

A jury was selected after voir dire. The parties exercised challenges for cause and their allotted peremptory challenges. The sworn jury heard opening statements, admitted evidence, direct and cross-examination, rebuttal evidence, and closing arguments.
2.

The Tribunal instructed the jury on the presumption of innocence, the elements of each offense, and the prosecution's burden to prove guilt beyond a reasonable doubt.
3.

After private deliberation, the jury announced that it had reached unanimous verdicts on all three counts submitted in this proceeding.

II. VERDICT BY COUNT

COUNT	OFFENSE	VERDICT	JURY
I	Subscriber and custom-content fraud	GUILTY	Unanimous
II	Cryptocurrency fraud scheme	GUILTY	Unanimous
III	Creator revenue misappropriation	GUILTY	Unanimous

STATUS OF VERDICT

The verdict establishes guilt on the three financial counts only. Punishment remains partly unresolved because the capital penalty phase has not concluded.

INTERIM SENTENCING ORDER

CASE NO. ALR-26-0702-X

III. SENTENCE BY CHARGE

Subject to the capital reservation below, the Tribunal imposes the following custodial terms. Each term is imposed separately and shall run consecutively to the others.

COUNT	OFFENSE	CUSTODIAL TERM	RELATION
I	Subscriber and custom-content fraud	20 years	Consecutive
II	Cryptocurrency fraud scheme	Life imprisonment*	Consecutive
III	Creator revenue misappropriation	30 years	Consecutive

* Alternative sentence if a death judgment is not entered or is later vacated.

IV. AGGREGATE CUSTODIAL JUDGMENT

ALTERNATIVE NON-CAPITAL TOTAL

LIFE IMPRISONMENT PLUS 50 YEARS

4.

Restitution shall be paid to subscribers, creators, and cryptocurrency depositors in an amount determined at a separate financial hearing.
5.

All traceable proceeds, cryptocurrency, accounts, and property derived from the convicted conduct are subject to forfeiture.
6.

Credit for qualifying pretrial detention shall be calculated by the custodial authority under the governing penal code.

CAPITAL RESERVATION

The prosecution may continue to seek death under the aggravated high-stakes fraud provision. No death judgment is entered by this interim order.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SENTENCE

CASE NO. ALR-26-0702-X

V. TWENTY-FOUR MONTHS OF SOLITARY CONFINEMENT

7.

The first twenty-four months of the custodial sentence shall be served in solitary confinement within a special housing unit.
8.

During that period, the defendant shall remain separated from the general population. Medical and mental-health reviews shall occur at least every ninety days and shall be documented for the Tribunal.
9.

At the end of twenty-four months, the custodial authority shall transfer the defendant to general population unless a later written order authorizes continued separation.

VI. COMPULSORY STERILIZATION MANDATE

DYSTOPIAN PENAL PROVISION

Pursuant to story-world Penal Code section 88.14, the Tribunal mandates permanent sterilization as part of the sentence. The stated basis is the defendant's operation of an OnlyFans account and the Tribunal's finding that the account facilitated the convicted financial conduct.

Implementation is stayed for thirty days to permit appellate review. Nothing in this prop document represents a lawful or legitimate real-world sentencing practice.

10.

The defense objection to the sterilization mandate is preserved in full. The defendant may seek an emergency stay from the appellate tribunal.
11.

The sterilization mandate is severable from the custodial terms. Vacatur of that mandate shall not disturb the verdicts or remaining portions of the sentence.

ORDERED CONDITIONS

24 months solitary confinement at the start of custody | Compulsory sterilization mandate stayed 30 days for review | Restitution and forfeiture to follow

RESERVED AND SEVERED MATTERS

CASE NO. ALR-26-0702-X

VII. SEPARATE PROCEEDINGS

12.
The Expanded Network Investigation, including allegations associated with the BOP MAFIA, the alleged BOP HOUSE, coordinated retaliation, blackmail, and possible trafficking, was not adjudicated in this trial.

13.
The Sarah Kearney homicide investigation was not adjudicated in this trial. This order makes no finding that Amy Lee Rose caused, directed, assisted, or participated in Kearney's death.

14.
Any charges arising from either investigation shall be tried separately before a newly selected jury. Evidence from this case shall not be treated as proof of the severed allegations unless independently admitted in the later proceeding.

VIII. CAPITAL PENALTY PHASE

15.
The death penalty remains available under the aggravated high-stakes fraud provision. The prosecution must prove the required aggravating circumstances in a separate penalty phase.

16.
Until the penalty jury returns its decision and the Tribunal enters a final judgment, the life-plus-fifty-year custodial sentence shall operate as the controlling alternative sentence.

17.
The penalty phase date is TBA. The defendant shall remain in federal custody pending that proceeding.

IX. ENTRY OF ORDER

IT IS SO ORDERED. The clerk shall enter the unanimous verdicts, transmit this interim order to the custodial authority, and schedule the capital penalty phase and financial hearing by further notice.

MARA VALE

Presiding Judge - Story-world tribunal

DATE OF ENTRY: TBA

Capital penalty phase: TBA

